Mrs. Willman baby sat may two children, Maria and John for a short time around 1979-1980. We all loved her and her family dearly. They treated my children like ones of their own. Many evenings when I went to pick Maria and John up, they would be eating at their dinner table as if it were their own.

Thank you Willman kids for sharing your mom! I will never forget her!
REST IN PEACE DEAR LADY
