I do feel blessed to have been a part of Amy's life. She was beautiful inside and out. Her love for family and life was very contagious. I know so many people in her life did see and know her amazing qualities and the strength of a strong woman.

Personally i have never had a friend like Amy. For me; Her memory will always be cherished. I loved her bunches.

Prayers of peace for all that knew her.

While I did not know her very long....I too am blessed to have known Amy....her loving, kind spirit filled a room and her contagious smile brought sunshine to all around! We all lost someone so special and she will be missed! I will hold tight to the memories and keep her alive always in my heart! Peace to you, my friend! ♥♥
