I will miss you little Archie. I have not seen you in awhile but you were always in my prayers. I always thought it was my mission in life to keep you out of trouble. And that was a 24 hour a day job! Like putting your socks and bars of soap in the toilet! Pouring out shampoo on the floor, hiding your shoes and other things that no body else would have thought of but I thought you were perfect! And I could not stand for you to get a spanking, Susan was so sweet and quiet, Lucy was like her mama had to have the last word but with a smile, then came little Archie and he kept everyone on their toes. Ended every adventure with HA HA I fooled you! Then came Leslie a little quiet but when she spoke she spoke volumes. (Little Archie's in trouble and I don't "wike" like it!). Then came Floyd he was all of them rolled into one. I love you all! I Love you still! All ways have and all ways will!
