Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade
Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
Far as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in the heart.

Darlene, sending healing prayers and comforting hugs.

Sadness in my heart as I read about Audrey's passing. Remembering her as the kind, loving wife of my brother. Remembering also myself as a teenager and how I encouraged Mack when he returned home from air force duty to ask her out.....and how happy I was when he did.

Mack, what a blessing for you and Audrey to have shared so many years together! Yet, losing someone so precious can leave the pit of sadness even deeper in your heart. As you recall those special times together, may they bring smile to your face and comfort to your soul.

From your years together came another special blessing, your daughter, Darlene and then her family. As ya'll share your love for one another and as you grieve together, may God cover you with His love, may you receive His comfort and peace in your heart.

Blessings and love,

Rev. Connie Gibbs-Morris
