To the Jenkins family: Words cannot adequately express the depth of my sorrow. My husband, John, introduced George and Elizabeth to me in 1983. We quickly became friends. When John passed in 2011, George and Elizabeth were there for me, and have been ever since. In fact, I feel like a member of the family. George was a kind, giving, loving man. He touched so many lives with his joyful, quiet, giving nature. The world has lost a great man, and heaven has gained a saint.

Dearest Elizabeth and family,
It is with a sad heart that we send our condolences to you. George was a most kind, loving and gentle soul with a contagious smile. John and I were pleased to have known George during our many years attending St. Paul's Church in Suffolk. When we returned to visit, we could always count on a warm greeting from George. We send you our love, hugs and deepest sympathies. Sincerely, Deidre and John Dickens
