My heart is say but I know you will be laughing more now than you have in quite awhile.

You are home for sure now with some of your closest family especially your brother.

Will miss you and all the laughs we have shared will never be forgotten.

Love you to heaven and back. Aunt Faye

Sorry for the untimely death of your dear loved one Mr. Glenn Dickens , cherish the time that you spent together ... no doubt he will be sadly missed but our loving Creator
and the God of all comfort will give you the comfort and strength needed to get through this (1 Peter 5:7) " while you throw all your anxiety on him , because he cares for you " ... He really does care and He wants to help you that's why the invitation is extended to you to throw all your anxiety on him.....
